(2) The Ombudsman shall have the power to ask the parties concerned for additional documents in support of their respective contentions and wherever considered necessary, collect factual information relating to the dispute available with the insurer <sup>1</sup>[or insurance broker, as the case may be,] and may make available such information to the parties concerned.

(3) The Ombudsman may obtain the opinion of professional experts, if the disposal of a case warrants it.

(4) The Ombudsman shall dispose of a complaint after giving the parties to the dispute a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

<sup>1</sup>[(5) The Ombudsman may, on his own or on the request of the complainant, hear a matter through video-conference if he is satisfied that circumstances so require, after notifying the complainant and the insurer or insurance broker concerned, subject to guidelines issued by the Council in this regard and published on its website:

Provided that the Ombudsman may allow the insurer (including its agents and intermediaries) or insurance broker, as the case may be, to be heard through video-conference.]

16. Recommendations made by the Insurance Ombudsman.—(1) Where a complaint is settled through mediation, the Ombudsman shall make a recommendation which it thinks fair in the circumstances of the case, within one month of the date of receipt of mutual written consent for such mediation and the copies of the recommendation shall be sent to the complainant and the insurer <sup>1</sup>[or insurance broker, as the case may be,] concerned.

(2) If the recommendation of the Ombudsman is acceptable to the complainant, he shall send a communication in writing within fifteen days of receipt of the recommendation, stating clearly that he accepts the settlement as full and final.

(3) The Ombudsman shall send to the insurer, <sup>1</sup>[or insurance broker, as the case may be,] a copy of its recommendation, along with the acceptance letter received from the complainant and the insurer <sup>1</sup>[or insurance broker, as the case may be,] shall, thereupon, comply with the terms of the recommendation immediately but not later than fifteen days of the receipt of such recommendation, and inform the Ombudsman of its compliance.

17. Award.—(1) Where the complaint is not settled by way of mediation under rule 16, the Ombudsman shall pass an award, based on the pleadings and evidence brought on record.

(2) The award shall be in writing and shall state the reasons upon which the award is based.

(3) Where the award is in favour of the complainant, it shall state the amount of compensation granted to the complainant after deducting the amount already paid, if any, from the award:

Provided that the Ombudsman shall,—

- (i) not award any compensation in excess of the loss suffered by the complainant as a direct consequence of the cause of action; or
- (ii) not award compensation exceeding rupees thirty lakhs (including relevant expenses, if any).

(4) The Ombudsman shall finalise its findings and pass an award within a period of three months of the receipt of all requirements from the complainant.

(5) A copy of the award shall be sent to the complainant and the insurer <sup>1</sup>[or insurance broker, as the case may be,] named in the complaint.

(6) The insurer <sup>1</sup>[or insurance broker, as the case may be,] shall comply with the award within thirty days of the receipt of the award and intimate compliance of the same to the Ombudsman <sup>2</sup>[and upload the details in the complaints management system.]
